THE FULTON CONVENTION.

A MONKEY AND PARROT TIME-SPLIT WIDE OPEN—TWO CANDIDATES—APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE.

The Courier not being an active participant in local political proceedings did not have a representative at the Fulton convention, but we regret to learn that the convention was not harmonious, and that in fact a regular monkey and parrot time-split resulted in two candidates, and much dissension and ill feeling. The convention was called to order by Mr. Charles Alexander, as Chairman of the County Committee, and proceedings were regular until Cayce precinct was called, when it appeared that there were two delegations from Cayce, one headed by Atteberry, and one by Dr. John Naylor. The ballot for temporary chairman was in progress when Alexander ruled in favor of the Atteberry delegation, whereupon an appeal to the house was made and refused. Here the pandemonium started, and our informant says that several fights commenced or were narrowly averted. The result was that the delegates from Hickman county, with some from Fulton, who were anti-Ayres, withdrew from the hall where the convention was being held, went elsewhere, and nominated Mr. R. B. Faris, of Hickman county. The Ayres men remained in the hall and declared Mr. Ayres to be the nominee.

The element that nominated Mr. Platt appear determined to make a hot fight all along the line, clear up to the regular election in November, and claim to have abundant material to justify their course. Of course the other side claim that Mr. Ayres' nomination is regular, and that the others were "bolters."

Col. Ayres in accepting the nomination, gallantly paraphrased Gov. Goebel's acceptance speech, that he "never received anything worth having without fighting for it," and that so esteeming the honor conferred, he was ready to fight the enemies of the Democracy, external or internal, etc.

KILLED.

Will Johnson Kills Will Lawson.

On Tuesday, a trouble occurred between Will Johnson and Will Lawson, two colored men, in which Johnson shot and killed Lawson. These two men had been associates, living together, kept their meat in the same smoke-house. On Saturday night Lawson removed his meat, or the meat, and Johnson complained to the officers. Lawson was arrested, brought before the City Court, and fined $50.00. Lawson, who owns a team, had agreed to pay the fine by work for the city. He had got his team ready for work, and was taking a lunch at Finis Thompson's restaurant, when Johnson came up, saying, "You had the advantage of me this morning," and immediately fired, the ball striking Lawson in the side. The wound was necessarily fatal. Dr. Faris was immediately called in, but medical skill could do no good.

After the killing, Johnson left, and has not yet been arrested.

Some one stole, purloined, or otherwise took, a $50.00 Confederate bill from the Courier window where it was on exhibition. Won't that fellow be fooled if he tries to pass it for current money!

Mr. Herman Scates, of Union City, was the guest of Miss Carrie Parham, Sunday.

Miss Bessie Scates of Union City, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Tamm, this week.

The Cumberland Presbyterians celebrated the anniversary of their church organization, Monday night, Rev. J. L. Dickens, preaching the anniversary sermon. His discourse was able, liberal, and of abundant biblical information, as to his denomination. Mr. Zimmerman presided at the organ, and Miss Davis rendered several beautiful solos.

A Convincing Answer. "I hobbled into Mr. Blackmon's drug store, one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., "he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, with which I had suffered for years. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said, 'well, if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week was cured and have not been troubled with rheumatism since." For sale by Cowgill & Cowgill, Hickman, and A. M. ### ELECTRIC RAILWAY

BETWEEN FULTON HICKMAN AND UNION CITY TALKED OF.

[Fulton Enterprise.]

Parties were in the city Tuesday looking over the ground with a view to organizing an electric railroad between here, Union City and Hickman. And now they do not wish their names mentioned, but they are in earnest and say that electric cars running between these points is one of the possibilities of the first year of the twentieth century.

They have seen parties here who have local capital and claim to have fine encouragement. This company proposes to run fine comfortable passenger and freight cars. They propose to run a freight department by which they can carry farmers' crop to town and deliver coal and city goods at their doors. An Enterprise man interviewed one of the parties and he says that it is a sure go and the prospects are that in one year the road will be completed.

This will be fine for Fulton and our county seat, and parties who have the means should encourage it all they can. There is nothing too good for Fulton and no business enterprise that could possibly prove a failure.

WHISKY TO GO.

TO BE DRIVEN OUT OF THE SMALL TOWNS IN WEST TENNESSEE.

Unless the bill is blocked in the Senate Memphis and Jackson soon will be the only whisky selling towns in West Tennessee. A bill prohibiting the sale of intoxicants in incorporated towns of less than 5,000 population has passed in the House, and is now up to the Senate for approval or disapproval. The whisky men at the capital city are fearful lest the Senate corner in the House bill. The bill is said to be the greatest surprise developed thus far in the House of Representatives. In such towns as Brownsville, Dyersburg, Humboldt, Paducah, Huntington, Milan, Martin, Troy, Lexington, Bolivar, Union City, Covington and Somerville.

Remnants of Wall Paper, (enough for a room), from 50 cents to $1.00. Come quick to get pretty patterns.

FORREST'S CAVALRY.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Feb. 1901. General Order No. 6.

Every and all surviving members of Forrest's cavalry, composed of Kentucky and West Tennessee veterans, except Gen. T. H. Bell's old brigade, are hereby ordered to report their names and residences to these headquarters immediately, that such may be enrolled preparatory to permanent organization, and for the purpose of becoming ready for the resumption at Memphis in May next. Please give name of company, number of regiment and the brigade to which you belonged at the close of the war.

By order of G. A. C. HOLY, Brigadier General Commanding. R. J. BLACK, Acting Adjutant-General.

THE END NOT YET.

Another Goshel

Suspect Arrested.

Capt. Garnett D. Ripley, of New Castle, under an indictment charging him with complicity in the Goshel murder. The grand jury recites that the one who fired the fatal shot is still unknown, but names the parties, Ripley, Howard, Taylor, Yonnes and others, as having conferred together and arranged for his murder at the time he was murdered. Yonnes' lawyers put in the plea of insanity for him. The other cases will be continued.

A CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to try to express, through the Courier, our sincere thanks to our many kind friends and faithful physician, for their loving kindness shown us in our afflictions, and we do sincerely trust that God will abundantly bless and reward each and every one. Is the prayer of

R. E. POLK AND FAMILY.

The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's is effectually set at rest in the following testimony of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employee of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardiner, Me. He says: "I had been suffering from a cold and cough during the winter of 1897, taking every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help. Until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Houlahan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I get a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines. For sale by Cowgill & Cowgill, Hickman, and A. M. Shaw, State Line.

MOB AT TIPTONVILLE.

The Sheriff of Lake County spirited away the negro Fitzgerald from the Tiptonville jail, where he was incarcerated for assaulting a Miss Nina. Michael Tnegro's crime was that which the law is rarely called on to punish. Judge Lynch generally deals with the case. Miss Michael is an orphan girl, 18 years old, white, and passed the negro card. Recited Lake, when he made the assault. She made her escape from him and reported the facts to the people at Tiptonville.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

DRAWING CONTEST

At the residence of Mr. J. E. Fajou, on Friday eve last, a number of young people enjoyed a social entertainment. The guests were royally entertained by the hostess, Miss Maybell, with various amusements, among them being a drawing contest, which proved to be a very interesting feature of the evening. The contestants were each required to make a drawing, and the one proving to be the best artist, received the prize. Miss Laura Brown was the deserving winner for the first prize, and Miss Frankie Reid won the booby. The guests report to a Courier representative that they had a delightful evening of enjoyment.

APRON PARTY.

The most enjoyable social event of the season, in the Ash Log Ridge neighborhood, was an Apron Party, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hinchshaw, on Wednesday, January 30th.

The young girls offered a nice cake to the young man who should put the nicest hem on an apron. The following couples were contestants for the prize:

Will Sudberry and Sheller Stowe; Henry McMullen and Lena Bowman; Sam Tanner and Lexie Alexander; Bill Watson and Ivy Marrow; Luther Turnbull and Ella Hare; Orie Sudberry and Bulah Marrow; Jesse Anderson and Emma Patterson; Bob Patterson and Ruby Bowman; Clay Evans and Maud Johnson; Henry Marrow and Anne Johnson; Fred Johnson and Blanche Hyer. After a careful examination the judges awarded the prize to Bob Patterson. We spent a very pleasant evening and all hope that Mr. and Mrs. Hinchshaw will remember us again in the near future.

IN REMORIAN.

In sweet remembrance of Carrie B. Polg, born March 2nd, 1880, died January 26th, 1901. "It is so hard." Such was the sad expression which passed from lip to lip as they placed her body in the silent tomb; but as the frost cuts down the choicest flowers, even so death claims our most loved ones. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church for three years, and as the chilly waters of death closed around her she shrank not, but clasped her white hands, and with voice said, "Dear Jesus take me home," and as her stay on earth grew longer, she sang:

"We will reign in glory with Jesus here and here."

She is not dead but sleeping. "She faded in beauty she faded in youth. In the springtime of innocence, virtue and truth. Like the bud but just opened, then chilled into light; Like the bright star of evening, obscured by black night; She lives in the Heaven of Heavens above. Remembering the story of Jesus' kind love; She lists the sweet music of that blest abode. And sings hallelujahs of praise to her God."

We grieve not as those without hope, for in eternity's dawn we will meet dear Carrie in a home over there, where afflictions never come.

ONE WHO LOVED HER.

The Embroidery Club meets at the residence of the Misses French, on Troy Avenue, this evening. "Please don't rain."

Last Saturday was Candlemas Day Purification Day, "The Feast of the Epiphany," etc., observances of the Greek, Roman and English Churches. It was also "ground-hog day," and it being cloudy, the badger could not see his shadow, and hence, superstition has it that winter is broken.

Mr. Sam Brown and Miss Emma Self, two popular young people of this county, were married Sunday last at the home of the bride's brother, Dr. John Self, at Clayton, Tenn. The bride is a daughter of Sam Self and the groom an industrious and highly esteemed farmer. May happiness be their portion.

Positively all work done without pain. McFALL & DISMICK, the painless dentists.

Mrs. JENNIE BRYANT, wife of Mr. Dave Bryant, died at the family home in Union City, Wednesday morning. Her remains were brought to Hickman and buried in the City Cemetery yesterday at 2 p. m. Funeral services were held at the residence of Mr. T. Ledford, conducted by Rev. R. H. Mahan and J. H. Evans. The deceased lived in Hickman many years, and was dearly loved by all for her sweet, kindly, tender and loving, womanly characteristics.

Fresh Oysters always on hand at Caruthers.

A Convincing Answer.

"I hobbled into Mr. Blackmon's drug store, one evening, like Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, with which I had suffered for years. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said, 'well, if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week was cured and have not been troubled with rheumatism since.' For sale by Coggill & Coggill, Hickman, and A. M. Shaw, State Line.

ELECTRIC RAILWAY

BETWEEN FULTON HICKMAN AND UNION CITY TALKED OF.

[Fulton Enterprise]

Parties were in the city Tuesday looking over the ground with a view to organizing an electric railway between here, Union City and Hickman. Just now they do not wish their names mentioned, but they are in earnest and say that electric cars running between these points is one of the possibilities of the first year of the twentieth century.

They have seen parties here who have local capital and claim to have line on the ground. This company proposes to run fine, comfortable passenger and freight cars. They propose to run a freight department by which they can carry farmers' crops to town and deliver and city goods at their doors. An Enterprise man interviewed one of the parties and he says that it is a sure go and the prospects are that in one year the road will be completed.

This will be fine for Fulton and our county seat, and parties who have the means should encourage it all they can. There is nothing too good for Fulton and no business enterprise that could possibly prove a failure.

WHISKY TO GO.

TO BE DRIVEN OUT OF THE SMALL TOWNS IN WEST TENNESSEE.

Unless the bill is checked in the Senate, Memphis and Jackson soon will be the only whisky selling towns in West Tennessee. A bill prohibiting the sale of intoxicants within incorporated towns of less than 5,000 population has passed in the House, and is now up to the Senate for approval or disapproval. The whisky men at the capital city are fearful lest the Senate concur in the House bill. The bill is said to be the greatest surprise developed thus far in the House of Representatives. In such towns as Brownsville, Dyersburg, Humboldt, Pa., Huntington, Milan, Martin, Troy, Lexington, Bolivar, Union City, Covington and Somerville.

Remnants of Wall Paper, (enough for a room), from 50 cents to $1.00. Come quick to get pretty patterns.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Feb. 1901.

General Order No. 6.

Every and all surviving members of Forrest's cavalry, composed of Kentucky and West Tennessee veterans, except Gen. T. H. Bell's old brigade, are hereby ordered to report their names and residences to these headquarters immediately, that such may be enrolled preparatory to permanent organization, and for the purpose of becoming ready for the reunion at Memphis in May next. Please give name of company, number of regiment and the brigade to which you belonged at the close of the war. By Order of

G. A. C. BOLT, Brigadier General Commanding.

R. J. BLACK, Acting Adj.-General.

THE END NOT YET.

Another Goshol

Suspect Arrested.

Capt. Garnett D. Ripley, of New Castle, under an indictment charging him with complicity in the Goshol murder. The great jury recites that the one who fired the fatal shot is to them unknown, but names the parties, Ripley, Howard, Taylor, Younts and others, as having conferred together and arranged for his murder at the time he was murdered. Younts' lawyers put in the plea of insanity for him. The other cases will be continued.

A CARD OF THANKS.

We desire, to try to express, through the Courier, our sincere thanks to our many kind friends and faithful physician, for their loving kindness shown us in our sad afflictions, and we do sincerely trust that God will abundantly bless and reward each and every one. It is the prayer of

The claim of other cough remedies to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectively set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employee of Bartlett & Lewis Co., Gardiner, Me. He says: I had kept adding to a cold and cough during the winter of 1897, taking every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Bonnell and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines. For sale by Cowgill & Cowgill, Hickman, and A. M. Shaw, State Line.

MOB AT Tiptonville.

The Sheriff of Lake County spirited away the negro Fitzgerald from the Tiptonville jail, where he was incarcerated for assaulting a Miss Nina Michael. Teggro's crime was that which the law is rarely called on to punish. Judge Lynch generally deals with the case. Miss Michael is an orphan girl, 18 years old, white, and passed the negro near Reelfoot Lake, when he made the assault. She made her escape from him and reported the facts to the people at Tiptonville.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

DRAWING CONTEST

At the residence of Mr. J. E. Fuqua, on Friday evening last, a number of young people enjoyed a social entertainment. The guests were hospitably entertained by the hostess, Miss Marshall, with various amusements, among them being a drawing contest, which proved to be a very interesting feature of the evening. The contestants were each required to make a drawing, and the one proving to be the best artist, received the prize. Miss Laura Brown was the deserving winner for the first prize, and Miss Frankie Reid won the trophy. The guests' report to a Courier representative that they had a delightful evening of enjoyment.

APRON PARTY.

The most enjoyable social event of the season, in the Ash Log Ridge neighborhood, was an Apron Party, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hinchshaw, on Wednesday, January 30th.

The young girls offered a nice cake to the young man who should put the most fun on an apron. The following couples were contestants for the prize: Will Sudberry and Sheller Stowe; Henry McMullen and Lena Bowman; Sam Tanner and Leslie Alexander; Bill Watson and Ivey Madson; Luther Turnbow and Ella Hays; Otis Sudberry and Balab Marrow; Jesse Anderson and Emma Patterson; Bob Patterson and Ruby Bowman; Clay Evans and Maud Johnson; Henry Marrow and Anne John; Fred Johnson and Blanche Heier. After a careful examination the judges awarded the prize to Bob Patterson. We spent a very pleasant evening and all hope that Mr. and Mrs. Hinchshaw will remember us again in the near future.

IN REMORIAN.

In sweet remembrance of Carrie B. Folt, born March 2nd, 1880, died January 28th, 1901. "It is so hard." Such was the sad expression which passed from lip to lip as they placed her body in the silent tomb; but as the frost cuts down the choicest flowers, even so death claims our most loved one. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church for three years, and as the chilly waters of death closed around her she shrank not, but clasped her white hands, and with voice said, "Dear Jesus take me home," and as her stay on earth grew brief, she sang:

"We will reign in glory with Jesus by-and-by."
She is not dead but sleeping.
"She faded in beauty, she faded in youth in the springtime of innocence, virtue and love."
Like the bud but just opened, then chilled into blight.
Like the flower of evening, obscured by black night.

She lives in the Heaven of Heavens above. Rehearsing the story of Jesus' kind love; She lists the sweet music of that blest abode. And sings hallelujahs of praise to her God.

We grieve not as those without hope, for in eternity's dawn we will meet dear Carrie in a home over there, where afflictions never come.

ONE WHO LOVED HER.

COWGILL & COWGILL, Hickman, and A. M. Shaw, State Line, will refund you your money if you are not satisfied after using Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They cure disorders of the stomach, biliousness, constipation and headache. Price 25 cents. Samples free.

MARDI GRAS.

Tickets on sale Feb. 11 to 18, good for return passage to March 7th, 1901. Low rate tickets on sale to New Orleans, La. Two wide vestibled through trains daily, carrying Pullman Palace sleeping cars to the Carnival city. For tickets or further information call on your nearest railroad agent or write C. M. SHEPARD, G. P. & A., Mobile, Ala.

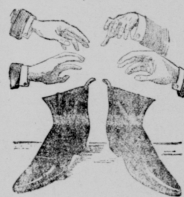

Ralph Bingham, Personator, Humorist, Violinist and Vocalist, will give an entertainment at City Hall, Feb. 18, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. The press is unanimous in expressions of commendation of Mr. Bingham's imitable entertainments. As a character artist he is said to be unsurpassed. So all desiring an evening's enjoyment of "Song, Music and Story," should not fail to attend.

The greatest danger from cold and la grippe is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. It will cure a cold or an attack of la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Cowgill & Cowgill, Hickman, and A. M. Shaw, State Line.
